

THE OLYMPICS

CHINA BRIEF

A weekly digest of the stories you should be following in China, plus exclusive analysis. Delivered Tuesday.

China's Swimming Victories Marred by Criticism

Athletes and commentators revive skepticism about how the World Anti-Doping Agency handled allegations ahead of the Paris Olympics.

By James Palmer, a deputy editor at Foreign Policy.

Special Olympics uses sport to promote inclusive education

Thursday, 4 April 2024

Why the Paralympics' humorous TikTok strategy manages to toe the line 'brilliantly'

Published 11 July 2024

Author A'bidah Zaid Shirbeeni

The greenest games ever? How claims of Olympic sustainability hit a reef in Tahiti

Publié: 22 juillet 2024, 01:50 CEST

How Paris 2024 aims to become the first-ever gender-equal Olympics

Apr 5, 2024

Paris Olympics: race for a fairer games?

Published: August 01, 2024

The 2024 Olympics claims to be the greenest and most gender-equal ever. From the refugee athletes hoping for glory to the push for trans representation, here's all the latest news from the games.

Paris aims to host the most sustainable Olympics ever – here's how the city is preparing

Mar 26, 2024

Peak Paris? Macron's 2024 Soft-Power Challenge

France needs more than this year's Olympics to build on post-Brexit success.

4 janvier 2024 at 06:00 UTC+1

HTC Hindustan Times

Real Estate Powered By 99acres.com India World HTCity

India vs Sri Lanka The Interview Videos Photos Web Stories

Home > French Foreign Policy > Sports Diplomacy > France's international strategy for sports...

France's international strategy for sports diplomacy

A+ A-

Olympics: Interplay of sports, geopolitics and diplomacy

By Ananya Raj Kakoti, Gunwant Singh

Paris 2024: Geopolitics and the Olympics

USC experts in international relations and foreign policy discuss how the Olympics shape — and are shaped by — global politics.

July 25, 2024

By Nina Raffio

Paris Olympic opening ceremony criticized for disrespecting religious beliefs

French bishops, US companies and political figures react to 'The Last Supper' drag queen performance at Paris Olympics

Gizem Nisa Çebi | 28.07.2024 - Update | 29.07.2024

IOC enters a new era with the creation of Olympic Esports Games – first Games in 2025 in Saudi Arabia

History was made today when the International Olympic Committee (IOC) decided to create Olympic Esports Games. The first edition will be held in 2025 in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. The 142nd IOC Session in Paris endorsed the proposal by the IOC Executive Board (EB) unanimously. For the organisation of the Games, the IOC has partnered with the National Olympic Committee (NOC) of Saudi Arabia for 12 years.

5 min read | Published on 23 July 2024

Paris 2024: Does hosting the Olympics boost the economy?

“Our values matter”: IOC President highlights values of sport in a fragmented world

“Excellence, respect, friendship”: Why hijab bans in French sports defy Olympic values and human rights