PREPOSITIONS

Q	Answer	Knowledge assessed	Explanation
1	A	Verb + preposition	Depend on is the correct collocation.
2	A	Adjective + preposition	Interested in + noun / -ing is the correct structure.
3	A	Indirect object	Send something to someone is the correct construction.
4	A+C	Preposition + -ing	After after, both a gerund (After finishing…) and a finite clause (After she finished…) are correct.
5	C	Position of the preposition	Both the informal (the colleague I was talking to) and the formal (the colleague to whom I was talking) constructions are correct.
6	B	Position vs movement	On expresses position. Onto expresses movement towards a surface.
7	A	Across	Across expresses movement from one side to the other.
8	A	Verb + preposition	Apologise for + -ing is the correct construction.
9	C	Verb + preposition	Accuse somebody of + -ing is the correct pattern. But with the verb 'charge', it would have been 'to charge someone with doing something'.
10	A	Into	Into expresses movement from outside to inside.
11	A	Through	Through expresses movement inside and from one end to the other.
12	B	Verb + preposition	Succeed in + -ing is the correct construction. But with the verb 'manage, it would have been 'to manage to do something'.
13	C	Get-passive / be-passive	Both the stranded preposition and the fronted preposition are grammatically correct. The second is more formal.
14	A	Out of	Out of expresses movement from inside to outside.
15	B	Double object – pronoun object	When the direct object is a pronoun, the indirect object must be introduced by to (hand it to me).
16	B	Arrive at/in	Arrive at is used for specific places (station, airport, hotel, etc.). Arrive in is used for towns, cities and countries. Arrive to is incorrect.