

Go off

- 1) The alarm went off when we were out.
- 2) Sorry, I just went off when I saw my car had been stolen.

Go into

I wouldn't go into details about it.

Go out with

Did you know? Jake is going out with Miranda!

Go with

Come on! You know that pink doesn't go with red!

Go on

Just go on watching the film, I'm going to bed!

Go for

Go for it, and you'll see if you like it!

Go ahead

Go ahead and eat without me!

Go along

I refuse to go along with another of his dangerous schemes.

go

Go over

I want to go over my notes before my presentations starts

Go back on

Don't trust him, he always goes back on his promises.

Go about

What is the best way to go about this?.

Go against

What he did goes against the rules.
