

Take away

What are you taking away from this experience?

Take after

Jim takes after his father, they look the same..

Take back

I'll never take back what I said about him.

Take in

How many calories do you take in a day?

Take for

Are you taking me for an idiot?

Take down

let me take all this down before I forget everything.

TAKE

Take on

We have to take on a new assistant..

Take off

- 1) The plane took off early this morning.
- 2) He drew on his desk, I can I take that off?

Take against

Why have you taken against her? She seems nice to me.

Take up

When did you take up this position? I didn't know you worked here!

Take over

He took the company over from his dad after his passed away;

Take to

She has taken to her new job with enthusiasm..